NOTICE

Swine Influenza Information

The purpose of this notice is to remind foreign missions that since November 2006, the Office of Foreign Missions (OFM) has maintained a section on its website (www.state.gov/ofm) dedicated to information about pandemic influenza. The web address of this section is <http://www.state.gov/ofm/c19455.htm>.

The Office of Foreign Missions will use this tool as the primary means for transmitting information to foreign missions concerning measures initiated by government authorities, including those that may have a direct impact on diplomatic missions and consular posts.

If foreign missions or their members have questions concerning this matter, please contact OFM via electronic mail at OFMInfo@state.gov.
